VOLUME XXXIX NO. 121

SEYMOUR, INDIANA, THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1920.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

O'BRIEN AND DIXON NAMED DELEGATES

To Attend Democratic National Convention as Fourth District Representatives.

ORGANIZATION IS EFFECTED

Dr. J. M. Shields, of This City, Selected as Contingent Presidential Elector.

William H. O'Brien, of Lawrenceburg, and Lincoln Dixon, of North Vernon, were elected delegates to the Democratic national convention, the selections being made by the Fourth congressional district representatives to the state convention in Indianapolis. Miss Margaret Paddock, of Greenwood, and Miss Harriett Renfro, of Madison, were chosen alternates.

Dr. J. M. Shields, of this city, was elected contingent presidential elector. John Russell, of Greensburg, was named presidential elector.

Other Fourth District Democrats included in the organization are:

Curtis Marshall, Madison, member of committee on resolutions.

John L. Axby, of Lawrenceburg, member of committee on rules.

Wallace Cotton, Vevay, member of committee on credentials.

Can Clark, of Nashville, assistant secretary.

Clarence E. Custer, of Columbus, a vice-president of the convention.

The organization so far as the Fourth district was concerned, was completed without argument. No contests were reported for any of the places filled.

The Fourth district Democrats were especially concerned with the probable candidacy of Edward P. Elsner, of Seymour, for the office of secretary of state. It developed late Wednesday that a movement was on foot to nominate him for that place and it was not expected that he would have any opposition in case he decided to accept the place at the head of the state ticket.

Friends of Mr. Elsner here did not know yesterday that he was being mentioned for the nomination but Seymour Democrats who are attending the convention became active immediately in his behalf and the boom was well formed when he arrived in Indianapolis Wednesday night. Mr. Elsner was unable to attend the preliminary conferences in Indianapolis yesterday as he was engaged in a trial in this county.

BIG MOVEMENT OF CORN WITH SHARP PRICE DECLINE

Hundreds of Bushels Marketed Here Following Announcement of Lower Quotation.

Announcement by local dealers that the price of corn was declining, caused many farmers to market their surplus supplies. Hundreds of bushels have been delivered to local dealers during the last few days and it is expected that the receipts will continue heavy until practically all the reserve supply is sold.

The corn price here today was $1.80. Some of the dealers a few days ago were offered as high as $2 a bushel for select corn and $1.95 for the average wagon receipts. Many farmers are of the opinion that corn has reached its peak price and that the market will continue to decline for several days. Whether or not the market will recover is a matter of speculation. However, the Chicago exchange closed higher than the opening today.

BLISH STREET IMPROVEMENT

Declaratory Resolution Provides for Curb and Gutter Between Second and Eighth.

John M. Lewis, city attorney, presided at the regular session of the city council Wednesday night in the absence of Mayor C. W. Burkart who was in Indianapolis to hold the Democratic state convention in line. When the mayor is absent from the city the clerk becomes mayor pro tem but Harry Findley decided that he would be kept sufficiently busy recording the minutes of the meeting that he asked that someone else preside. The councilmen then asked Mr. Lewis to occupy the chair.

Councilman Emery introduced a declaratory resolution calling for the improvement of North Blish street between Second and Eighth streets with concrete curb and gutter. This is the first step in the proposed improvements and after ten days' notice the council will fix a date when remonstrances, if any, may be filed against it.

Councilman Goodale introduced an ordinance requiring the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad to maintain a crossing watchman on O'Brien street. The

ELECTRIC WIRING THOUGHT TO HAVE CAUSED BLAZE

Slight Damage Done by Fire at the Home of Henry Hauenschild West Second Street.

A "short circuit" of electric wiring is thought to have been the cause of a small blaze at the home of Henry Hauenschild, West Second street, shortly before noon today. The blaze was discovered by a neighbor. The fire department had difficulty in finding the location of the fire as no street number was given.

The fire started in one corner of the roof and was prevented from spreading under the shingles. The firemen used the chemical effectively. The damage is covered by insurance.

NO ARRESTS MADE ON INDICTMENTS

Court House Officials Give no Information as to When Warrants Will Be Served.

SPECULATION IS GENERAL

Report of Grand Jury Indicting Eighty-Seven Came as a Surprise to County.

No arrests have been made on the indictments returned by the special session of the Jackson county grand jury late Tuesday, according to court house officials today. Strict secrecy is maintained relative to the action of the grand jury and no information could be secured as to the names of those indicted, the character of the offenses charged or when the warrants would likely be served. It is known that considerable work is attached to the preparation of the warrants and it is the general belief that the delay in making arrests is due to the time required to complete the papers necessary and place them in the hands of Harvey L. McCord, sheriff, for service.

The report of the grand jury has caused one of the biggest sensations that has developed in Jackson county in recent years. The public is speculating as to the names of the eighty-seven men indicted but these will not be known until the warrants are served, this course being required when indictments are returned by a grand jury. It is thought that the first of the arrests will likely be made the latter part of this week or not later than the first of next week.

It is not likely that the cases resulting from the indictments will come to trial at the present term of court which will be concluded May 29. Of course, the trial dates will be left to the discretion of the court and usually pleas of guilty are permitted to be entered when the defendants desire.

It is the prevailing belief that most of the indictments have to do with alleged gambling in this city as the investigation followed closely upon the revelations of Edward Brand, of this city, who claims to have lost about $3,600 playing poker during the last fourteen months. If the supposition is correct, it is rumored that the charges will be contested in court and that few pleas of guilty will be filed.

The investigation of the grand jury, it is stated, has been far reaching, and this is indicated by the large number of witnesses called before that body during its session which started May 3.

WILSON TO PLAGE BLAME ON CONGRESS

President to Declare Unsettled Conditions Are Due to Failure to Adopt His Policies.

SUMMER SESSION PROBABLE

Financial Situation of Government is Said to Be Acute and Complex.

By United Press.

Washington, May 20.—President Wilson will seek to keep congress in session during the summer to revise the revenue laws and to provide for the serious financial situation that is confronting the treasury according to persistent reports among Democratic members today.

Several saw an indication of this intention in the letter of Secretary Houston to the ways and means committee opposing the soldier bonus stating an additional tax may have to be imposed to meet regular requirements of the government.

An intimation came from a prominent Democratic leader today that the president is preparing a strong message to the Republican congress in which he will charge that its failure to make revisions in the tax laws that he recommended is responsible for the unsettled financial conditions, the low market values of Liberty bonds, and in part the high cost of living.

Should the bonus bill be passed some members believe the financial situation of the government would become such that an all summer session would become imperative.

BASEBALL FANS CALLED FOR MEETING AT CITY BUILDING

Decision Will be Reached Tonight Relative to Proposed Organization of Team.

A meeting will be held at the city building at 30 o'clock tonight at which a decision is expected to be reached whether or not Seymour is to have a semi-professional ball club this summer. Fred Able, W. L. Johnson and a number of local business men have had the matter under consideration for several weeks and it was decided to call the "fans" together and let them decide if a team would be properly supported.

It is suggested that the Blish lots in the northeast part of the city be leased for a ball grounds. A grandstand and bleachers would have to be erected and the preparation of the diamonds would entail considerable expense. The best means of raising the money will be discussed tonight.

Those interested in the movement urge all fans to attend the meeting for, it is pointed out, if the interest tonight lags the whole proposition may be abandoned.

Miss Rachel Barbour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Barbour, North Chestnut street, who will be graduated from the Conservatory of Music, Cincinnati, this spring, will begin a class in voice culture on June 15th. She will also conduct classes in history of music, appreciation and harmony. Anyone interested please call phone 166.

"LET US BRACE UP" SHOUTS MARSHAL

RIGHTS OF INDIVIDUALS

Touches on Prohibition Legislation, League of Nations and Other Principles of Government.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, May 20.—"Let us brace up. Let us become captains of our own destiny. Let us snap our fingers at the sneering face of adverse fate. Let us go to work. If we can't make a living in six hours, let us work eight; if not in eight, let us work ten; if not in ten, let us work twelve."

Thus spoke Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall in his keynote address before the Indiana Democratic state convention today. He discussed "principles of government," he said, and gave his views on a number of important issues.

"What I shall say about the Treaty of Peace with Germany will be brief for I have no hope of lighting with my little rush light theimmerian darkness which now envelops it."

"My reasons differed from those of many others. I did not and do not like the forms of government of many of the contracting parties not

MICHIGAN DEMOCRATS IN ROW OVER PROHIBITION

Delegates Are Not Instructed to Support Temperance Law at National Convention.

By United Press.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 20.—The most remarkable Democratic state convention held in Michigan in a quarter of a century, leaders say from a point of enthusiasm and attendance, broke up in a row yesterday over the prohibition question after the delegates had almost unanimously voted to reaffirm the "eighteenth and nineteenth" constitutional amendments, referring to prohibition and woman's suffrage.

The convention by a vote of 925 to 269 refused to instruct the 30 delegates to vote for prohibition at the San Francisco convention. Former Mayor John W. Bailey, of Battle Creek, a delegate at large, who told the delegates he had been a "total abstainer" all his life, led the fight against instructions. It is said the 30 delegates and 18 for prohibition and 12 against it.

MINERS AND DETECTIVES IN CLASH AT MATEWAN, W. VA.

Fight is Climax of Efforts to Organize New Miners' Union.

By United Press.

Matewan, W. Va., May 20.—With at least ten men dead and many wounded, this town was quiet today when the first detachment of state police arrived to take charge, following last night's battle between miners and operatives of the Baldwin-Felts detective agency. Eviction of miners from their homes by the detectives caused the battle. The dead include seven detectives, the mayor and two miners.

The battle came as a climax to a fight over a new miners' union. Organizers were working in this district, forming the new union. The detectives agency was hired by coal companies to hunt out the union members.

EDWARD P. ELSNER IS NOT CANDIDATE

Vice-President Marshall Chosen to Head Delegates at Large to National Convention.

RALSTON AND TAGGART NAMED

Mrs. Alice McCulloch, of Ft. Wayne, is Also One of "Big Four"—Marshall Favorite Son.

By United Press.

Indianapolis, May 20.—A. S. Foster, of Ft. Wayne, this afternoon was unanimously chosen by the delegates of the Democratic state convention in session here to make the race for lieutenant-governor on the Democratic ticket.

Charles Wagner, Democratic chairman in the Fourth congressional district, received the nomination for secretary of state without opposition. Edward P. Elsner, of Seymour, who had been mentioned in connection with this place, had previously withdrawn. Elsner did not know that his name was being mentioned until he arrived here yesterday.

Dr. Carlton McCulloch, of Indianapolis, was chosen as the Democratic gubernatorial nominee by acclamation, the convention having recognized his primary election plurality. The motion for McCulloch's nomination was made by Judge Cox, of Indianapolis.

Other nominations are Attorney-General, George Sunkel, Rockport; Treasurer, George Dehority, Elwood; Reporter of Supreme Court, Wood Unger, Frankfort; State Superintendent, Miss Adelaide Steele Baylor, Wabash; Judge Supreme Court, Fifth District, Judge F. E. Bowser, Warsaw; Judge of Appellate Court, First District, Elbert Swan, Rockport; Judge Appellate Court, Second District, John Reidelbach, Winamac.

Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall was named to head the list of Indiana's four delegates at large to the Democratic national convention. The other delegates, are former Governor Samuel Ralston, Thomas Taggart, Democratic candidate for United States senator, and Mrs. Alice McCulloch, of Ft. Wayne.

The delegates and their alternates were selected when the committee on rules submitted its reported embodying the names of the delegates and their alternates. The report also moved ratification of the primary choice of Thomas Taggart as the party's senatorial aspirant; named the proposed presidential electors at large and their contingent electors and carried the certified vote of the Democratic governorship race. It was adopted without opposition.

That the delegates to the national convention will vote for Marshall for president on the first ballot, at least, was indicated by the tremendous ovation given him when Ralston, temporary chairman, referred to him as "being considered as presidential timber."

"While he is not a candidate," Ralston said, "the delegates from Indiana will go to the convention to bring about his nomination. The band struck up a patriotic tune and the convention cheered wildly."

The following alternate delegates at large were named: Bessie Lauenstein, of Evansville, Mrs. Harry McNutt, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Hortense Moore, of Rockville, and Mason Niblack, of Vincennes.

The report of the committee on rules deviated from the usual order of business but there was no fight over any part of it. Just before this Vice-President Marshall delivered the keynote on national issues. He received much applause when he proclaimed himself a "Wilson Democrat" but did not get much of a hand when he mentioned the prohibition issue. Claude Bowers, permanent

DECLINING PRICES.

The public reads with great interest the dispatches from different parts of the country reporting material reductions in prices of many necessary commodities. Whether they are real or are designed as a trade stimulant will be determined in time. Some economists are of the opinion that peak prices have been reached and that lower levels will soon prevail.

There is a probability, however, that the lower price propaganda is a means to create additional demand for commodities which are moving slowly. The public is subject to psychological influences. Recently, southern cotton growers conceived the overall scheme and for several days denim clubs were formed throughout the nation by men and women who desired to make a protest against soaring prices. The movement was a success—for the cotton growers. An increased demand for cotton materials resulted.

There is no question but that the public has curtailed its buying during the last few months. The sales reduction are more noticeable in large centers than in agricultural communities such as Seymour where buying is generally based on actual needs. It appears that the price reduction publicity may cause some people to believe that commodities are going to lower levels and that it is the proper time to buy. It is evident that if the demand is increased the question of supply will become a factor in price fixing.

Prices, under normal conditions, are regulated largely by the law of supply and demand. But these are abnormal times. The question of credit becomes a factor. There are indications that credit is tightening and this may be the cause of the falling prices. If this is the real cause the value of every commodity will be affected and we will soon see a new condition. But high prices of finished products have been responsible for the unusually high wages paid to workers. If the finished product has a lower market value it is likely that reductions will have to be made all along the line in order to keep our economic system in gear.

As the Democratic state chairman is engaged in the furniture business the party ought not experience trouble in getting plenty of good planks.

The selection of a physician as the Democratic nominee for Governor may indicate that the party feels that it needs a doctor.

The ears of the Republican party are burning, if there is any truth in the old saying.

We'll wait and see if the special grand jury held the royal flush.

Common Sense Talks
With Women

Women should be taught by those of experience that their most precious possession is their health. Upon it depends happiness, success and attractive homes,—for no home can be attractive or happy with a despondent, nervous, irritable wife and mother, suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex, such as displacements, ulceration, inflammation, irregularities and the consequent headaches, backache, and dragging down pains.

It is such women who should listen to common sense advice and when such symptoms appear try that most successful of all medicines, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and which for more than forty years has been restoring American women to health.

Here is Proof.

Cokesberry, Fla.—“I had a tumor and suffered with a severe pain in my right side. I could not stoop to fasten my shoes and was not able to do my work. I went to the doctor and he gave me medicine and told me to stay in bed for at least fifteen days and not even to lift a basin of water till I could gain strength enough to be operated on for I never would be well without it. I remembered one of my aunts who had been in the same condition and was cured by your medicine so I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well completely. The tumor has disappeared and I am able to do anything I want to do. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you can publish my testimonial.”—Mrs. S. F. RANDOLPH, Box 18, Cokesberry, Fla.
Wakefield, Neb.—“I felt sick all over and did not know what to do with myself. I was irregular and had chills and night sweats, would vomit at that time. I suffered in this way for many years and had medicine from two doctors but they did me no good and so I lost faith in them. Finally my husband got tired of seeing me suffer so he got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It seemed to help me right away, then I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and took several boxes. Now I feel just fine all the time so it surely is a wonderful medicine. I have told several ladies about your medicine and you can use my testimonial.”—Mrs. JULIET L. PRimm, R. No. 1, Box 4, Wakefield, Nebraska.

rules were suspended and the ordinance was adopted by unanimous vote.

Councilman Collins presented an ordinance which would increase the salaries of the members of the fire department from $85 to $100 a month. Collins moved that the ordinance be placed on second reading but the motion was lost by a vote of four to three. It will be read for the second time at the next meeting and will take its regular course.

On motion of Emery a tile at the corner of Pine and Sixth streets was ordered removed and concrete curb and gutter constructed. Councilman Hoadley also reported that the manholes in the sewers in the west part of the city were congested and the street commissioner was instructed to clean them out. On motion of Emery a manhole on South Vine street will be raised by the street commissioner's force.

Councilman Goss reported that the manhole on Vine street was in bad condition and on his recommendation the committee of streets, alleys and sewers will inspect it.

Councilman Base presented a remonstrance which was signed by a number of residents opposing a change in the water channel from West Brown street to Laurel street. The remonstrance was ordered filed. Collins reported that the vacant lot at the rear of the I. O. O. F. building was filled with rubbish and debris and on his suggestion the trash was ordered removed.

The matter of buying a sewer nozzle was left to the finance committee with power to act, on motion of Goodale.

Hoadley reported that the Masters Construction Company would begin work on the improvement of the Hustedt alley as soon as the weather would permit. The contract was awarded several weeks ago.

ONE DRINK JAILS BRIDEGROOM

Brooklyn Judge Lets Him Go to Try to Square Things With His Wife-to-Be.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Togged out in his wedding finery, namely, a perfectly correct afternoon outfit, Alexander Kioskowsky, aged forty, woke up in a cell.

His recollections of what happened were vague. He remembered he had started from his boarding house to make his first venture in married life. His wife-to-be was waiting for him. His disposition to be prompt at the altar was fixed in his mind, but a tempter whispered to him that one little glass of half of 1 per cent beer would not hurt him. The barman whispered "try whisky," as if he was doing him a favor, and he did. That was the last recollection he had until the cell custodian woke him up and told him to get ready to go to court.

The facts in the case were duly presented to Magistrate McGuire by Patrolman McGovern, who had picked the expectant bridegroom out of the gutter.

"If you promise me that you will not take another drink until you are safely married I'll let you go," said the magistrate.

Kioskowsky promised, with marked fervor, and then started out to square things with the woman who may or may not consent to be Mrs. Kioskowsky.

Catarrrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Catarrrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

that I do not object. It is to desertion and going over to the enemy that I object. It is not going forward, it is going over the precipice I fear.

"Cool off and tell me, did we go forward when we gave the unlettered colored man the ballot and then spent fifty years in devising plans to deprive him of it?"

"Did we go forward when we gave the people the right to nominate and elect their senators and then broke the bank trying to corrupt the suffrage?"

"Did we go forward when we devised the primary and gave to money letters patent on office holding?"

"Did we go forward when we passed the prohibition amendment and then immediately began openly and avowedly to seek ways to evade it?"

"I hold that the Democratic doctrine of equal and exact justice to all men and of special privileges to none will meet all the angry and irreconcilable views of today. The needle points always to the pole. It does not point to the East when the wind's in the East, nor to the West when the wind's in the West. Congress errs when it gives to a howling minority what it wants just to stop the howl. It also errs when a majority adopts for a minority the policy of the stepmother when rearing her husband's large family of children, which was to find out what they do not like and give them plenty of it.

"Equal and exact justice for all men means for minorities as well as for majorities.

"We all condemn in unmeasured terms that foreign-born man who, having heard that America is a political asylum, has come to our shores with an idea that he can do as he pleases and be treated as a lunatic, though he be a criminal. What is to be the honest answer of every liberty-loving American to the proposal of all sorts of American citizens that this government has been instituted for the purpose of giving him a benefit at the expense of someone else? Opposed as I was to the hyphen of blood, I must be opposed to the hyphen of class or business or interest.

"Everyone in Indiana knows that though I neither use nor serve liquors and ceaselessly hope that all will abstain from their use as a duty they owe to God and their families, I have not been a nation-wide prohibitionist. The prohibition amendment is, however, a part of the Constitution of the United States, until it shall be set aside by an opinion of the Supreme Court or until lawful ways shall lead to its repeal. Delighted as I am to see the mass of mankind now sober, I could not from the ancient Democratic standpoint have made a speech dealing with the relations of a man to his God and his family and insisted that the state should control them. But the Democratic Party will merit the contempt of fainting of a law because certain citizens do not believe in it. While the prohibition amendment remains, it must be enforced in accordance with its provisions. If crystallizing public sentiment does not as the days go by get back of it, the people will find a way lawfully to lessen what some deem to be its rigors. "Freedom of speech and freedom of the press, now that the war is over, should be restored and punishment should be provided for all those who seek to stir up tumult and disorder or the overthrow of our government by any other than the orderly processes of the ballot box. The government owes it to its citizenship not only to enforce the law against the law breaker but to protect the citizen in the exercise of his constitutional and inalienable rights. It should let the citizen alone as long as he is pursuing an honest calling in an honest way and by precept and example it should hold the citizen responsible for the discharge of his duty.

"It has been my purpose to discuss principles, not men; but I desire to endorse the candidacy of Senator Taggart for election to the Senate of the United States, not because of our personal, friendly relations but because I found him, when he was in the Senate, to be honest, competent and patriotic—a high-grade business man with no entangling alliances such as I deem to be particularly needed now in the reconstruction of governmental policies. In my judgment, his country needs him."

Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.

With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of foot.

A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly! No humbug!

"HERE'S THE WHY"

Wholesale prices have constantly advanced. Every time we placed an order the cost was higher than the preceding order. So, to protect our patrons, we bought heavier than ever before, hoping to supply all our customers before another advance might come.

But the terrible variety of spring weather has retarded buying—and we find our stock too big. In other words, we need money, and, to get it quickly, we have sacrificed our profits.

We always sell at a very close margin—giving the greatest possible values the year 'round.

But the condition are abnormal. We must meet them, and the women of Seymour are the gainers.

Scores have already taken advantage of this sale.

Our entire stock is included. Clothes for all women are here. Take our tip and get here early.

the diplomatic views which those forms of government might bring into the League of Nations. But I saw a world in tumult and disorder. I saw as a result of the war the springing up of new democratic governments of weak peoples, helpless as little children. I felt that unless the storms of passion, envy, discontent, ambition and greed could be calmed by the oil of international discussion and arbitration, the greater fruits of the war would be lost, that the principle of self-determination would be set back for a century. I did not know of the good faith or bad faith of other governments. I had no doubt of our own good faith and felt assured that the covenant provided a way in which, if we discovered we were losing any of the rights and privileges of American citizens or that our government was yielding to other governments any of the duties it owed to its citizenship, we could with honor withdraw from the League.

The VALLEY of the GIANTS

By PETER B. KYNE

Author of "Cappy Ricks"

Copyright by Peter B. Kyne

When Colonel Seth Pennington read this outburst he smiled. "That's a bright scheme on the part of that Trinidad Redwood Timber company gang to start a railroad excitement and unload their white elephant," he declared.

When Bryce Cardigan read it, he laughed. The interview was so like Buck Ogilvy! In the morning the latter's automobile was brought up from the steamship dock, and accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Ogilvy disappeared into the north following the bright new stakes of his surveying gang, and for three weeks was seen no more.

On a day when Bryce's mind happened to be occupied with thoughts of Shirley Sumner, he bumped into her on the main street of Sequoia, and to her great relief but profound surprise, he paused in his tracks, lifted his hat, smiled, and opened his mouth to say something—thought better of it, changed his mind, and continued on about his business. As Shirley passed him, she looked him squarely in the face, and in her glance there was neither coldness nor malice.

Bryce felt himself afire from heels to hair one instant, and cold and clammy the next, for Shirley spoke to him. "Good morning, Mr. Cardigan."

He paused, turned, and approached her. "Good morning, Shirley," he replied. "How have you been?"

"I might have been dead, for all the interest you took in me," she replied sharply. "As matters stand, I'm exceedingly well—thank you. By the way, are you still belligerent?"

He nodded. "I have to be."

"I think you're a great big grouch, Bryce Cardigan," she flared at him. "You make me unutterably weary."

"I'm sorry," he answered, "but just at present I am forced to subject you to the strain. Say a year from now when things are different with me, I'll strive not to offend."

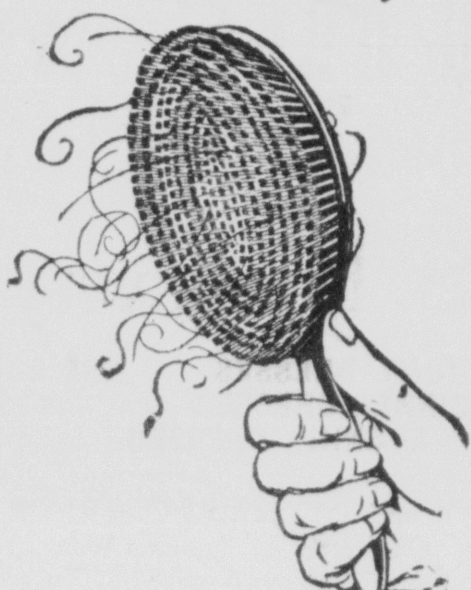

"I'll not be here a year from now," she warned him.

He bowed. "Then I'll go wherever you are—and bring you back." And with a mocking little grin, he lifted his hat and passed on.

Col. Seth Pennington was among those who, skeptical at first and inclined to ridicule the project into an early grave, eventually found himself swayed by the publicity and gradually coerced into serious consideration of the results attendant upon the building of the road. The Colonel was naturally as suspicious as a rattlesnake in August; hence he had no sooner emerged from the ranks of the

Doctor Cupid

That love sometimes cures disease is a fact that has been called to the attention of the public by a prominent physician. Love is not, however, the cure for all women. Many a woman is nervous and irritable, feels dragged down and worn out for no reason that she can think of.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives new life and new strength to weak, worn-out, run-down women. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. It is now sold by all druggists in the United States in tablets as well as liquid form.

KOKOMO, IND.—"Some time ago I felt 'draggy' and worn-out and greatly in need of a tonic. A friend suggested to me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had taken other tonics but I never took anything that helped me so quickly as the 'Favorite Prescription.' It was not an unpleasant medicine to take and my whole system seemed to be benefited."—MRS. FLOSSIE COOP, 2108 N. Market Street.

frank scoffers than his alert mind framed the question:

"How is this new road—improbable as I know it to be—going to affect the interests of the Laguna Grande Lumber company, if the unexpected should happen and those humo-steers should actually build a road from Sequoia to Grant's Pass, Ore., and thus construct a feeder to a trans-continental line?"

Five minutes of serious reflection sufficed to bring the Colonel to the verge of panic, notwithstanding the fact that he was ashamed of himself for yielding to fright despite his firm belief that there was no reason why he should be frightened. Similar considerations occur to a small boy who is walking home in the dark past a cemetery.

The vital aspects of his predicament dawned on the Colonel one night at dinner, midway between the soup and the fish. So forcibly did they occur to him, in fact, that for the nonce he forgot that his niece was seated opposite him.

"Confound them," the Colonel murmured distinctly, "I must look into this immediately."

"Look into what, uncle dear?" Shirley asked innocently.

"This new railroad that man Ogilvy talks of building—which means, Shirley, that with Sequoia as his starting point, he is going to build a hundred and fifty miles north to connect with the main line of the Southern Pacific in Oregon."

"But wouldn't that be the finest thing that could possibly happen to Humboldt county?" she demanded of him.

"Undoubtedly it would—to Humboldt county; but to the Laguna Grande Lumber company, in which you have something more than a sentimental interest, my dear, it would be a blow. A large part of the estate left by your father is invested in Laguna Grande stock, and as you know, all of my efforts are devoted to appreciating that stock and to fighting against anything that has a tendency to depreciate it."

The Ready Acceptance of CHALMERS is Nation-wide

WHEREVER automobiles are discussed the merits of "Hot Spot Chalmers" are freely conceded.

For its Ram's-horn and Hot Spot devices have solved the problem of extracting the maximum power from low grade "gas."

And Chalmers performance has proved that those engine troubles which are almost invariably associated with the use of this low grade "gas" have been eliminated.

Hot Spot "heats up" the raw "gas," "breaks it up" and vaporizes it into a "cloud."

This makes just the right kind of fuel for the cylinders.

Ram's-horn, with its easy air bends, rushes the "cloud," at a speed estimated at 100 miles an hour, an equal distance to each cylinder, and when the spark plugs ignite the "gas" you get results.

These two devices have done much for Chalmers. They have given it remarkable smoothness. They have brought down the item of repairs and replacements to an almost negligible sum per year.

LATE SPRING RESULTS IN BIG DEMAND FOR TRACTORS

Many Farmers Buying Machines So That Delayed Plowing for Corn May Be Done Quickly.

An unusually heavy demand for farm tractors is reported by dealers who believe that it is the result of the late spring and the desire of farmers to break their ground for corn quickly. The weather has delayed this kind of work several weeks and some of the large land-owners declare that unless they can get help it will be impossible for them to seed the usual acreage. The most profitable corn fields in this county are located in the river and creek bottoms, and this is the last ground to dry.

With the use of tractors one man is able to break as much ground as several would turn with a team. In some localities where a number of farmers own tractors the work is being pooled so that the largest possible acreage may be prepared at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. James Demaree were called to Louisville this morning on account of the death of Mrs. Demaree's sister-in-law, Mrs. W. J. Gray.

CHARLES WAGNER NOMINEE FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

democrats have agreed to naming a woman to the state ticket. She is Miss Adelaide Steele Baylor, of Wabash, as superintendent of public instruction. She was chief deputy to Charles A. Greathouse when he held that office.

Women were recognized in the district caucuses last night. One was elected district delegate to the national convention and seven were chosen alternate delegates. One chairman, delivered a speech on state issues, criticizing the Goodrich administration.

Equal representation for women among the four delegates-at-large to the democratic national convention was the center of a sub-surface fight. Some wanted to appoint one woman to the "Big Four" and others wanted to appoint two.

Anticipating the ratification of the federal suffrage amendment the woman, Mrs. Adelbert Flynn, of Logansport, assisted in drafting the platform as a member of the resolutions committee.

The decks seemed cleared for winding up the days business without much friction. The convention opened at nine o'clock with an address by Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall. He was followed by Former Governor Samuel M. Ralston, as permanent convention chairman, Claude G. Bowers, as permanent secretary, and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, of Chicago, a member of the democratic national committee.

The oratory consumed the greater part of the morning and followed by the ratification of the resolutions committee's draft of the platform planks and nomination of state officers.

WEATHER REPORT.

Generally fair tonight and Friday. Little change in temperature.
